

Veterinary Professor and SWOSU Grad to Present Seminar This Wednesday

09.16.2011

SWOSU graduate Dr. Dustin Devine, who is now assistant professor of equine surgery at the Oklahoma State University Center for Veterinary Health Sciences, will present a seminar entitled, "Cutting Edge Technologies in an Age Old Science," this Wednesday, September 21, on the Weatherford campus.

The public is invited to attend the presentation at 4 p.m. in Room 212 of the Old Science Building on the SWOSU campus.

A native of Weatherford, Devine attended SWOSU and received Bachelor of Sciences degrees in biological Sciences and chemistry. He completed his veterinary education at Oklahoma State University graduating in 2002. Following graduation he completed an internship in referral equine medicine and surgery at Peterson & Smith Equine Hospital, Ocala, Florida.

In July of 2003, Devine returned to Oklahoma State University to complete a three year residency in equine surgery. During his residency, Devine also completed the Master of Science degree in biomedical sciences in 2006. In 2007, Devine completed the certification requirements of the American College of Veterinary Surgeons and became board certified in large animal surgery.

Devine will be available to speak with students about careers in veterinary medicine in Old Science Building 216 from 2-3:45 p.m. prior to his presentation. For further information, contact Dr. Peter Grant, 580.774.3294 or peter.grant@swosu.edu.
